

ANNUAL ROLL CALL OF RED CROSS IS ON

City Wide Canvas Will Be Made During Week

MRS. STROUD LEADS

Is Brought to the Citizens

The city-wide drive to complete the Red Cross Annual Roll Call by next week has been announced by Mrs. W. H. Stroud, chairman of the Annual Roll Call. Committees have been appointed for every section of the city and most of these will complete the canvass by Friday or Saturday in order that a full and complete report may be made by the first of next week.

Mrs. Stroud stated yesterday that few reports had been made to her by soliciting committees, but she hoped to have all of these reports by Tuesday. The necessity of the Roll Call this year is stressed by the work now being done in the schools by the Red Cross nurse who has been sent here for the purpose of inspecting the children of Randall county. It is necessary that a liberal response be made to the Roll Call this year in order that the inspection work may be completed by the nurse.

The Red Cross is one of the most valuable organizations in the world in times like these and is assisting in cases of distress. Cloth has been received for the needy of Randall county and is being distributed through a committee headed by Mrs. T. C. Thompson and Mrs. H. O. Price. The benefits of the organization have been felt often by the citizens of this county, especially through the work of the nurses who have been sent here for the inspection of the children. There was never a time when money was more urgently needed than now for the Red Cross, and each and every citizen is urged to respond to the Roll Call when the solicitors call upon them during the coming week, stated Mrs. Stroud.

Rotary Club Has Visit From Dist. Gov. Anderson

District Governor Andy Anderson of Ranger visited the Canyon Rotary Club Tuesday. He met with President Oscar Gano, members of the Board of Directors and committee chairman at 10:30 a. m., reviewing the work being done in the local club.

Speaking at the luncheon period, the Governor praised the local club. "With your splendid singing and attendance record, Canyon is recognized as one of the best little clubs in the 47th district," stated the Governor.

Governor Andy gave a vivid description of his trip through Canada last May to attend the Rotary International at Seattle, preceded by the International Assembly at Victoria. He described Rotary as the great international hook up of the leading business and professional men, seeking to promote international peace. Rotary is a going concern. While all lines of business have depreciated from 25 to 75 per cent in value, Rotary shows a loss in membership of only 2 1/2 per cent. He highly praised the aims and objects plan of Rotary, with its four great objectives, Club Service, Vocational Service, Community Service and International Service.

W. L. "Bill" Smith was introduced as a new member of the Club.

Guests of the Club were: Mrs. Anderson of Ranger; Arthur Osgood, Leroy White, Arch Hunsley, W. C. Garrett, E. L. Roberts, Phil Purdum, Ted Mite and E. B. Masters, all of Amarillo.

EAGLES-WHITE FACE TICKETS ON SALE

Tickets for the Eagles-White Face football championship game to be played Friday, have been placed on sale at the high school and at the Jarrett Drug Store. The tickets are 50 cents for adults and 25 cents for students.

Clothing Ready for Needy Families

Reports have come to Red Cross headquarters in Canyon that several families in the county are in need of clothing who have not asked for assistance. The American Red Cross is distributing clothing to needy families on application made through Mrs. T. C. Thompson, Mrs. H. O. Price, Mrs. T. A. Dowlen and Mrs. I. C. Jenkins. These requests are confidential in nature, and families needing clothing may have no hesitancy in asking for aid.

Two Safes Cracked Sunday Night With $81 Taken in Loot

The safes in the Canyon Supply Company and the A. W. Sternberg Lumber Company were cracked Sunday night, with $76 in cash taken from the former together with a number of checks, while only $5.55 was the result of the haul at the latter place.

A door was forced open at the Supply Co., and the combination of the safe smashed. Local banks were notified of the checks which were taken. So far no merchandise has been missed. There was no insurance on the safe.

This was the second time the safe at the Sternberg office has been attempted, the first attempt having failed. The combination was smashed and the locked drawers on the inside forced open. Insurance was carried on the safe and contents.

Finger prints were taken on both safes Monday morning, and from these officers are hopeful of obtaining clues.

Physical Defects Found Among 216 School Children

A second report was made this week by Miss A. Ahlschier, Red Cross nurse, of the inspections being made among the school children of the county. The first report was filed last week with the Randall County Red Cross Chapter. The following is the report:

Forty pupils were inspected by the nurse at the Palo Duro school, this same number were found with one more defect. 23 need dental care; 11 with eyes defective; 2 with defective hearing; 3 with defective skin; 20 with defective throats and nasal passages; 21 with enlarged lymph nodes; 18 with defective posture; 13 were found 10 per cent and more underweight and 20 per cent and more overweight.

Twenty-nine pupils were inspected by the nurse at the Stone school and the same number were found with one or more defects. 23 need dental care; 6 with eyes defective; 1 with defective hearing; 3 with defective skin; 15 with defective throats and nasal passages; 14 with enlarged lymph nodes; 2 with defective posture; 7 were 10 per cent and more underweight and 20 per cent and more overweight.

Inspections will be made at the following schools: Fairview, Sunny Hill, Johnson, and Umbarger. Conferences are held with parents in regard to the defects found and suggestions made for the corrections of same, also in regard to pre-school children.

Pupils in the Training school of the College are being examined on Saturdays and we hope to complete this work in the near future.

Armistice Day is Celebrated Friday by Palo Duro Post

Despite the handicap of cold weather the Armistice Day celebration of the Palo Duro Post No. 97 of the American Legion was carried out on schedule.

A throng of several hundred people lined the north and west sides of the square as the parade marched by at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

Led by the band, the Legion men followed. Trailing them in their order was the National Guardsmen, the Girl Scouts, the group of school children and the floats.

Immediately following the parade Major E. A. Simpson of Amarillo delivered the Armistice Day address at the American Legion Hall.

In the afternoon the Canyon-Farwell High School football game was the center of attraction. The game was a charity one, with a portion of the net proceeds going to charity.

In the evening an invitation dance at the Legion Hall was attended by a large crowd. Music was furnished by Joe Norman's orchestra from Amarillo. The dance was sponsored by the Legion orchestra.

Banks of Canyon Will Close Dur- ing the Noon Hour

Starting next Monday, Nov. 21, the two banks of Canyon will close their doors during the noon hour. This precaution is being taken to preserve the interest of the customers and employees of the banks. Many bank robberies have been pulled off late during the slack hours of the noontime when there is not a full crew at the banks and small number of customers are in the banking houses.

Statements were made yesterday by W. C. Black of the First National and R. H. Wright of the First State urging that the customers co-operate with the bank officials in carrying out the policy, which they deem to be the best interest of the banks and the customers. The custom is being observed in practically all of the towns on the Plains. The banks will continue to close at 3:30, when the doors will be locked to forestall any attempt at robbery after banking hours.

SEVERAL MEN ASK PLACE AS POSTAL HEAD

Postmaster To Be Named
In March 1934 for Canyon

DEMOCRATS ACTIVE

Successor to Oscar Hunt
to Take Civil Service
Test

With the Democratic victory of last week, local people immediately turned their attention to the post-office in Canyon, as the biggest political plum which will fall into the lap of some local citizen. In fact, that is perhaps the only political job which will be accessible to a citizen of Canyon, although reports indicate that Congressman Marvin Jones is receiving many requests from Canyon citizens for appointments to places on the federal payroll under the Democratic administration.

The term of office of Postmaster Oscar Hunt will not expire until March, 1934. If the new president leaves in office all of the Republican appointees until their terms expire. The civil service regulations make such a provision. But nevertheless, local citizens are now busy pushing their claims with Congressman Jones, and it is expected that petitions will soon be out seeking endorsement for the office, although it is understood that these endorsements are of no consequence in this race for postmaster.

It is yet early for definite announcements from any of the candidates, but among those who have been mentioned since the election as likely active candidates for the job are the following: C. N. Harrison, John Guthrie, C. R. Flesher, Guy Harp, John Knight, J. M. Redfearn and W. W. Ernest. Other citizens may be interested in asking for the postoffice, but have not become active.

Trustees of the Methodist Camp grounds in the Ceta canyon, southeast of the city, were empowered Saturday at the annual conference in Amarillo to enter an agreement with the Presbyterian Church for an interest in the Encampment Grounds. The Methodists have owned these grounds for several years and each year sees added interest taken in the annual encampments held at this place. The Presbyterian church wishes to have adequate facilities for a like encampment.

The Baptist church of Northwest Texas was the first to buy camp grounds, which adjoins the Methodist camp, and the annual meeting of the Baptists has become the largest denominational meeting in this section. Rev. B. F. Fronabarger started the Baptist Encampment, and was manager for several years.

A TREMENDOUS RESPONSIBILITY.

The overwhelming Democratic landslide brings to the party a most tremendous responsibility, and likewise a most tremendous opportunity. The responsibility is fraught with dangers of the abuse of power. The opportunities may be overshadowed with the determination to punish rather than to correct existing conditions. Never was there a situation in the history of the Democratic party in which there was such need of cool judgment, fearless leadership, tempered with justice, prudence and common sense, as the situation today. The party given an overwhelming vote of confidence cannot take this vote as a license to upset the existing order of things which have been recognized through the history of this Republic, institutions that are necessary to the well being of the millions of people who have confidence in their government, and look to it for protection as well as guidance.

President Hoover deserves the sympathy of the people rather than the condemnation. He is the victim of circumstances over which he had no control. The boom following his election was not of his making. The depression which succeeded was the result of the excessive extravagance of the people of this nation rather than the misguidance on the part of the President. Billions of dollars worth of wealth had been destroyed through the wages of war; billions of other dollars had been wasted through schemes not intended to benefit any other than the promoters. The reckless age needed a goat; it's name was Hoover, and hence the overwhelming defeat. The same cause—the demand for a change—saw the same fate of other public officials throughout the United States. Governor Sterling was its victim; other state and county officials felt the same public rebuke in the demand of the people for a new deal—most anything just so it was a change. The people were not to blame for this feeling. When a man sees his wealth being taken away through depreciation of prices, through no fault of his own; or when eleven million wage earners have no jobs; when men, women and children are hungry in a land which produces more than it can consume; when producers of every line see their products either go begging for the lack of a buyer, or actually sell below the cost of production—the air is charged and surcharged with the demand for a new deal, to give some one else a chance. No doubt President Hoover and Republican leaders felt this demand weeks ago. If they did not see the whirlwind coming, they were either blind or dumb.

Change in government is a good thing. No party may continue in power year after year with no danger of displacement, and, at the same time demand the proper respect of the voters. It does not command the best talent available within the party ranks. Office holders who are unresponsive to the will of the people. They are self-centered, self-seeking and supremely selfish in everything that they do or undertake. New blood, new ideas, new ideals, new leadership are necessary at intervals, therefore the change in national administrations is good for the country. Now that the Democrats are in control, it would be a bad thing to continue the party indefinitely, just as it was bad for the country to keep the Republicans too long in the leadership.

Nothing radical is going to happen since the Democrats have been elevated to power. The depression will not end overnight, although the President attempted to tell the country that it had ended last July. Wonders will not be performed either in political or business circles. The government cannot cure economic ills. But the government may materially assist, through honesty in leadership, efficiency in management, sincerity in direction, equity and a square deal for one and for all. Government is for the benefit of all of the people, rather than for the class which may happen to be in power at that particular time.

It was hard for most prohibitionists to accept the liquor plank of the Democratic party, as advocated by Roosevelt and Smith. In fact, prohibitionists did not accept the plank, or the ideas of the leaders. A determined fight will be made against the modification of the liquor laws, and a demand made that the government take active steps to enforce these laws. There is something more important just now to most people than a drink of booze, and that is something to eat. Booze will not bring back prosperity. Taxes cannot be raised from booze when the people have nothing with which to buy bread and meat. Probably the wetness of Roosevelt and Garner brought into the Democratic party many thousand votes last week. A lot of old toppers will feel disappointed that on March 5th they are unable to walk down to a corner saloon and put their feet on the brass rail. No, these things will not happen overnight. If they happen at all, there are millions of mothers in America today who remember too well the heart aches of saloon days. Bad as the liquor problem is today, it cannot compare with the days of the saloon, and thank God that there are plenty of people in America with a memory of those days.

With both houses of Congress Democratic by good majorities, Roosevelt will go into office March 4th under the most favorable circumstances so far as leadership is concerned. The responsibility of the party is great. Safe, sane men are needed as advisors to the new President. The best minds of the party should be commanded to the support of the ticket, as the success of the party during future years depends very greatly upon the sanity of the program adopted.

THE OIL SESSION.

The oil session of the legislature came to an end Saturday night, passing the bill favorable to the Governor and most of the oil and gas producers of the state. The major companies were divided in opinion, but nevertheless the majority are usually able to take care of themselves without suggestion of the state government. For the second time in a period of one year the legislature has been called into special session to consider the oil problem. Now that an agreed bill is passed, it is hoped that the solution has been found.

The seriousness of the situation may be seen in the fact that had the bill not been passed, the huge East Texas field would have been running wide open by this time, the market would have been demoralized, taking from the state treasury millions of dollars, with no return to the land owners, the royalty owners and the operators. Whereas the independents of East Texas were fighting proration one short year ago, they came begging this year that the bill pass, and predicted chaos to the oil industry if the bill was not passed in order to curb the greed always on hand when there is not sufficient regulation. Taxpayers of the state may wonder if they received value for the $50,000 spent in this session, but there is no question of the wisdom of this expenditure, regardless of the deplorable condition of the state's finances. It would have been much worse without the session, as the Governor and Railroad Commission felt themselves unable to longer curb the situation.

Without doubt this will be the last session of the 42nd legislature, which has already far exceeded all other legislatures in length of its session. The only foolish session was the one called to pass the cotton acreage limitation bill last year, which was immediately declared unconstitutional. The problems of Texas have increased so rapidly that it is necessary to have more frequent sessions of the law making body.

But we hope that this is the last session that the writer will be called upon to attend.

The coming cold weather is reminding people that the Great World Mother, the American Red Cross, will soon be called upon to help those in distress. The only way this can be done is by the people of the Nation joining the organization, putting in their dollar membership fee, and thus putting money in the treasury of the local chapters. There will be no National donations this year, and the only way the county chapters have of helping its needy people is through the medium of the Red Cross is by the citizens of those counties becoming members. Fifty cents from each membership goes to the National organization. The remainder of the membership remains at home. By this means a fund is created which can be used for relieving suffering humanity. It is a proven fact that the people themselves are not in a position this year to do much helping out of their pockets. They can scarcely help themselves. For that reason a dollar spent in joining the Red Cross means everything in getting the needy properly looked after this coming winter. It is not only a duty, but should be a pleasure for those who have employment, and who are in a position to do something, to at least spend one dollar and join as worthy an organization as the Red Cross. They could not spend a dollar in a better way than by being one of the millions over the country who are thus doing their bit in bringing sunshine and comfort to those who are unfortunate and down and out. Not only does the American Red Cross help the needy, but it does it in a business-like, systematic manner. All waste is eliminated. Every penny is forced to do its full duty. That means

Presidential Cabinet May Have Woman Member for the First Time

FOR the first time in history, a cabinet of the president of the United States may contain a woman member. She is Miss Frances Perkins, Industrial Commissioner of New York State, who is said to be in line for appointment as Secretary of Labor by President-elect Roosevelt.

A small, stout, pleasant-faced woman, with brown hair and eyes, Miss Perkins has a background of many years' social and industrial work to fit her for the cabinet post. It was at Mount Holyoke College that she first became absorbed in social work. An economics course, taken by accident, fired her imagination. After her graduation, she studied economics and sociology at Columbia, then spent some time attending lectures on these subjects in England and on the continent.

Returning to the United States, she took up settlement work, being employed successively at the Chicago Commons, the Chicago Hull House and the Greenwich House in New York. In 1907 she became secretary of the Philadelphia Research and Protective Association, an organization interested in welfare work. Three years later she became executive secretary of the Consumers' League. Then occurred one of her most notable achievements.

Indignant at woman labor conditions, she fought for the passage of a bill authorizing a 54-hour week for women. After a three-year campaign, Albany legislators passed the measure. Because of this splendid work, she was employed by the Committee on Safety after the Triangle factory fire, in which 140 workers lost their lives. Miss Perkins' energetic investigation of fire hazards, and her suggestions for their reduction and elimination, resulted in an excellent group of statutes for the prevention of further fire disasters.

In recognition of her ability, she was appointed to the State Industrial Commission in 1919. Two years later she was made chairman and, in 1929, she was appointed State Industrial Commissioner by Gov. Franklin D. Roosevelt.

If Miss Frances Perkins, above, Industrial Commissioner of New York state, is appointed secretary of labor by President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, it will be the first time in history that a presidential cabinet contained a woman member.

Sweeping reforms and innovations have never been a part of Miss Perkins' creed. She has always advocated careful administration and research to minimize industrial inefficiency and dangers. She has been continually in the forefront in the fight against industrial diseases in New York State. She has campaigned for special legislation for women workers, because she believed that biological differences between men and women demanded it. Likewise, Miss Perkins has fought to replace the "big stick" theory of industrial regulation with the conference method. Formerly, the government used threats and coercion to get industry to set up arbitrary standards of safety,

If Miss Frances Perkins, above, Industrial Commissioner of New York state, is appointed secretary of labor by President-elect Franklin D. Roosevelt, it will be the first time in history that a presidential cabinet contained a woman member.

health and fair conduct toward its workers. But more and more it has become the tendency of the government to confer with employers and educate them to the mutual benefit of such standards.

BORN in Boston, Miss Perkins comes from a long line of New England ancestry. Among her ancestors are members of the Otis family, prominent among early American colonists. In private life, she is Mrs. Paul Wilson, wife of a former secretary of Mayor Mitchell of New York, and mother of a pretty 15-year-old daughter. Her maiden name, she explains, was assumed shortly after her marriage so that her political activities would not embarrass her husband in his official capacity.

that by permitting this organization to do the relief work, more is done than by having individuals, or a half dozen relief agencies working at the job independently. The Red Cross is the only way to handle the matter satisfactorily. For that reason everyone who can possibly do so is urged to become a member—Paducah Post.

THE GOODNIGHT TRAIL

Not so many years ago one of the great cattle trails of Texas bore the name of the dauntless Indian fighter and pioneer of the Panhandle, Charles Goodnight. Today a movement for another Goodnight Trail is gaining momentum. It would serve a double purpose: to commemorate the earlier trail and its founder; and to offer a scenic drive through the Palo Duro Canyon.

J. O. Guleke, representing the state of Texas at the ceremony of the cornerstone laying of Pioneer Hall, Panhandle-Plains Historical Society, Saturday in Canyon, said: "May we here propose that the citizens of the Panhandle of Texas lend their efforts to have designated, by a special act of the legislature of Texas, a roadway to traverse the scenic portion of the Palo Duro Canyon to Goodnight (the last resting place of our illustrious pioneer) to be known as 'The Goodnight Trail,' thus perpetuating in the eternal canyon he loved so well, our recognition of the varied and enduring services he rendered to Texas."

The current issue of the Southwest Review, published by the Southern Methodist University in Dallas, devotes many pages to Goodnight's early experiences on the Llano Estacado. It is written by J. Evetts Haley, author of "The XIT Ranch." The frontispiece is a sketch of Colonel Goodnight made by Harold Bugbee of Clarendon and the article is illustrated by other sketches by the same artist.

The statewide interest which is being evinced in the Panhandle, its pioneers and history could be capitalized at this time. Such a roadway would offer many good West Texans an opportunity to work.

Some day the Palo Duro will have such a scenic drive. Now is a good time to build it.—Amarillo News.

Officers of Seventh District at State Meeting in Corpus Christi

It is a long trek from Canyon in the Panhandle of Texas to Corpus Christi by the sea, and the two sections differ so greatly that it is difficult to believe that they are parts of the same state.

Saturday morning, Nov. 5, when Mrs. Ewing Leech of Pampa, Mrs. Arthur Headley of Dimmitt, and Mrs. Clyde Warwick and Mrs. J. A. Hill left for the Texas Federation of Women's Club Convention, the Panhandle air was cold and bracing. When they arrived in Corpus Christi Sunday evening the air was hot and heavy. But the city was ready in holiday attire for our coming.

The Seventh District was well represented, considering the distance from the convention city. Besides the above mentioned women, Mrs. S. E. Fish, Mrs. Herman Pipkin and Mrs. J. B. Dooley were there from Amarillo, Mrs. L. R. Magee from Quanah, Mrs. Badger from Littlefield and one woman from Ft. Worth.

Mrs. J. A. Hill, president of Seventh District, reported fourteen county libraries in Texas, five of them being in our district. We had only one delinquent club during 1931-32. No other district equalled this record except the first district which had none.

Each district reported excellent work done in the departments especially in citizenship, in help for the unemployed, in education, in welfare, and in home. The Junior Woman's Forum of Wichita Falls had a remarkable report. Mrs. Ewing Leech read the report from the Woman's Culture club of Memphis this being the seventh district's highest scoring club.

Mrs. Arthur Headley served on the credentials committee and one of the best talks of the whole convention was given by Mrs. Clyde Warwick on "Intelligent Voting."

The National Federation President, Mrs. Grace Morrison Poole, spoke convincingly upon the federation work. Mrs. Lawson the national first vice president, who is half Indian, sang a number of her people's folk songs. The most outstanding thing on the program was a lecture on the "Human Side of International Relations," given by Mrs. Percy V. Pennybacker, a charming seventy-one year young daughter of Texas.

The Texas Federation President, Mrs. J. W. Fincher, a very matter of fact, positive character, presided impartially over the business meetings and spoke on several occasions. A number of drastic changes were made in the by-laws of the federation. The two most important of these were the change in the length of State and District administrations from two to three years and the change of the time of the State Convention from November to May.

Many beautiful social courtesies were extended the group. On Monday, Mrs. Henry Redmond of Corpus Christi gave a luncheon to the Board members. In the afternoon the women of the city complimented the guests with a Merienda, where everything was Spanish. The "Pioneer" and "Texas" dinners, the "Home," the "Legislation," the "Junior," the "Literature and Drama," and the "Press and Publicity" luncheons were interesting. The favors on all occasions were hand made with ocean motifs predominating. The guests of the "Home" luncheon each received a package of figs or dates, or a jar of marmalade or candied fruits.

The most enjoyable courtesy of the Panhandlers was the fourteen mile ride on the bay. The sun setting over a silvery green stretch of water into a salmon pink horizon, the moon above and a white winged gull flying between, was a picture to fulfill an artist's dream.

A fish fry as an aftermath on Thursday evening and a reasonably priced trip to the Valley completed the week of work and play. The Canyon women having visited the valley before, spent Thursday night in Kingsville where Mrs. Warwick and Mrs. Hill were guests of Mrs. Cousins and daughter.

Mrs. G. R. Scott of Corpus Christi, who is called the Admiral of the Valley, a woman seventy or more years old, of the rugged pioneer type greatly loved by the whole section, dominated the convention by the sheer force of her personality. A law unto herself she broke the monotony of dignified business sessions and of social affairs alike.

Much praise is due Mrs. J. U. Fields of Haskell, program chairman, for the planning of the delightful four day convention.

MRS. J. A. HILL

KEITH DONNELL BRIDE OF CLARENCE BAUER

In a quiet ceremony, beautiful in its simplicity, Miss Keith L. Donnell became the bride of Clarence J. Bauer at the home of her parents, on Friday evening, Nov. 11, at seven o'clock. Only the immediate families of the contracting parties witnessed the ceremony.

Before a bower of daisies and chrysanthemums, the bride and groom, without attendants, were met by the officiating minister, the Rev. J. R. Sharp of Canyon, who had read the marriage vows for the parents of the bride, nearly twenty-two years ago. The ring ceremony was used.

The bride was gown in a maroon crepe traveling dress with white accessories. She is the attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. L. A. Donnell, who reside two miles west of the city. She graduated from Canyon High School in 1929 and is at present classified as a junior in West Texas State Teachers College. She was editor of the High School paper for two years and was a reporter on the Prairie staff. She was active in several student organizations and is now engaged in her second year of successful teaching in the Johnson School, southeast of the city.

The groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. J. J. Bauer of the Johnson community and has extensive wheat farming interests in that locality. He too, was educated in the Canyon schools and is well and favorably known in the county.

Following the ceremony, Mr. and Mrs. Bauer left for a short honeymoon trip to Carlsbad. Upon their return they will make their home on his farm near Ralph Switch, where Mrs. Bauer will continue her school work.

MRS. F. E. SAVAGE IS HOSTESS THURSDAY

Thursday afternoon Mrs. F. E. Savage entertained the members of the As You Like It club with three tables of bridge at her home 2110 Fifth Avenue.

Chrysanthemums, orchid and bronze predominating, were lovely in the rooms where the guests were seated. A dainty refreshment course was served following the game.

Special guests and club members included: Mrs. William Ash, Mrs. John Fry, Mrs. Clyde McElroy, Mrs. N. E. McIntire, Mrs. T. M. Moore, Mrs. Dan K. Usery, Mrs. Chas. Fleisher, Mrs. Harris M. Cook, Mrs. D. M. Stewart, Mrs. J. J. Walker, Mrs. A. W. Sternberg and Mrs. T. B. McCarter.

Mr. and Mrs. Donald Trollinger spent the week-end in Wellington as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Ernie Hilman.

ACHIEVEMENT PROGRAM OF WEST SIDE CLUB

Keen interest in a well filled pantry was plainly manifested when thirteen members of the West Side Demonstration Club together with 27 visitors met at the home of Mrs. Bourn for an inspection of her pantry, and an Achievement Day program. During the afternoon the guests inspected the pantry with the rows of cans of corn, beans, peas, meats, grape juice, pickles, relishes, etc., also the gift table and the menu table.

Mrs. Burgan, the president, presided over the business session, after which a short program was presented. The reports of various members on canning projects since the club was organized was interesting. Mrs. Frank Shotwell favored the group with a reading and helpful talks were given by two of the visitors, Judge Orton and Mr. T. C. Thompson, following which all joined in singing "America." In the drawing in which only the guests registered their names, the prize, a quart of grape marmalade, went to Mrs. T. V. Slack.

Refreshments of pumpkin pie with nuts, whipped cream, coffee and cocoa were served by the hostess, assisted by the club ladies. The next meeting will be Wednesday, Nov. 23, with Mrs. Joe Tuek. The members are urged to come, since an interesting matter is to be presented.

MR. AND MRS. HAINES ENTERTAIN SATURDAY

Entertaining with a delightful affair at the home of Mrs. Andy Costley, 2004 Fourth Avenue, Mr. and Mrs. John Haines were hosts to five tables of bridge Saturday afternoon.

A profusion of autumn flowers in gay colors formed an attractive setting in the reception rooms.

Following the games a business meeting was held and the group organized into a club, the name of which is to be selected later. Officers were as follows: Mrs. Albert Byars, president; Mrs. Jack Foster, vice-president; Mrs. Tom Lair, secretary-treasurer and Mrs. Harley Burrus, reporter.

Delicious refreshments of chicken salad sandwiches, vegetable salad, pumpkin pie and cocoa were served.

Seated were: Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Fulton, Mr. and Mrs. Bailey McCormick, Mr. and Mrs. Tom Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. Jack Foster, Mr. and Mrs. Buster Krilling, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Burrus, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Costley, Mr. and Mrs. Lavon Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Byars.

WOMAN'S BOOK CLUB DISCUSSES HIGHWAYS

Interesting highways of the South and East were discussed at the meeting of the Woman's Book Club Wednesday afternoon of last week.

Mrs. Dan K. Usery, discussing the joint subject of roads and parks told of points of interest along the highways from New York to New Orleans and from Cleveland to Charleston, describing also the Smoky Mountain and the Shenandoah National parks.

Mrs. C. A. Murray talked to some length of economics stressing in her discussion the cotton industry of the South. Mrs. Elizabeth Fry Page talked to the club members of the historic spots of Tennessee, with which she is familiar, centering her address around Chattanooga.

During the business meeting Mrs. Herschel Coffee was elected assistant librarian to aid Mrs. Harris M. Cook, librarian.

The discussion of national highways will be continued at the next meetings of the club.

ATTENDED LUNCHEON AT HEREFORD

Mrs. L. A. Donnell, Mrs. J. R. Sharpe, Mrs. Bills, and Mrs. Knight, attended a luncheon in Hereford last Tuesday. The Presbyterian Auxiliary of Hereford entertained many delegates from neighboring towns, including 29 guests from Amarillo. Following the luncheon, they heard two interesting lectures by Miss Mary Hutchinson, secretary of the Board of National Missions. Miss Hutchinson was formerly a missionary in Persia.

MR. AND MRS. McCARTER ENTERTAIN SATURDAY

Giant chrysanthemums placed at points of vantage in the entertaining rooms formed an attractive setting Saturday evening when Mr. and Mrs. T. B. McCarter were hosts to five tables of bridge, at their home, 1819 Fifth Avenue.

Following the games a dainty refreshment was served.

ENGLISH PLUM PUDDING

Ingredients: 3 c. flour; 1 tsp. salt; 1/2 tsp. allspice; 1/2 tsp. cinnamon; 1/2 tsp. nutmeg; 2 c. stale bread crumbs; 2 c. seeded raisins; 6 eggs; 1 c. currants; 2 c. brown sugar; 1/2 c. chopped figs; 1 c. shredded candied grape fruit peel or citron, orange and lemon mixed; 2 c. chopped beef suet; grated rind of 1 lemon; 1 c. grape juice or sweet pickle syrup.

Directions: Sift together the flour, salt and spices, add the bread crumbs, the raisins, cut into halves, the currants, sugar, suet very finely chopped, the shredded candied peel, the figs, and lemon rind. Mix thoroughly, then moisten with the well beaten eggs and grape juice. Turn into well oiled moulds or tin cans.

The methods differ when canning puddings and when just steaming puddings so the two methods will be given.

Steaming in moulds: Line the mould with butter paper which has been oiled. Fill mould not more than 2-3 full. The amount may depend on the size desired. One and two pound puddings are best sizes for marketing. Special orders may require a larger size or even individual moulds.

The moulds should be covered with heavy brown oiled paper. Fasten paper cover tightly on the mould. It is now ready to be placed in the cooker to be steamed. Steam, cook and decorate the puddings as directed under Famous Old Fruit Cake recipe.

Ways to Serve Christmas Pudding

Hard Sauce: 1-3 c. butter; 1 c. powdered sugar; 1-2 tsp. lemon extract; 2-3 tsp. vanilla.

Cream the butter, add sugar gradually, and flavoring.

Nutmeg Sauce: 2-3 c. sugar; 1 1/4 c. boiling water; 1 1/4 tsp. flour; 1 1/2 tsp. butter; 1/2 tsp. nutmeg; 1-8 tsp. salt.

Combine the sugar, flour, and salt and mix thoroughly. Gradually pour in the boiling water. Add the butter, stirring constantly, bring to boiling point and boil for 5 minutes. Then add the nutmeg and serve hot.

Lemon sauce made this same way, except omit the nutmeg and add 1 1/2 tablespoons lemon juice instead.

Cream Sauce

1 egg; 1 c. powdered sugar; 1/2 c. thick cream; 1/4 c. milk; 1/2 tsp. vanilla or rum flavor.

Beat white of egg until stiff; add yolk of egg well beaten and sugar gradually; dilute cream with milk; beat until stiff, combine mixtures and flavor.

Place pudding in steamer or colander over boiling water and allow to steam for 30 or 40 minutes just before serving. Serve piping hot with one of the above suggested sauces.

A survey shows that many ministers of the gospel are underpaid. Sermons do not seem to be a paying commodity.

STUDENTS IN NEW FIELD ON WELFARE WORK

RELIGIOUS COUNCIL TO PLACE BASKETS IN CONCERNS FOR GIFTS.

In cooperation with the local welfare organizations, the Student Religious Council has initiated a program whereby all people interested in helping the unfortunate will be given a chance to make contributions.

In every grocery store in Canyon a box or basket will be placed in to which donors may leave articles of food and clothing. These articles are to be distributed at Thanksgiving time among people in need of such necessities.

The Council also plans to place in other business houses jars in which money contributions may be deposited for the same cause.

This is a unique work for a college organization to undertake, and should command the support of every student of W. T. and citizen of Canyon. All contributions, whether large or small, will be appreciated by the Students Religious Council, and an earnest effort will be made to make distribution among those most worthy.

Bufs Will Play Final Game at Oklahoma City

The Buffalo football team left yesterday for Oklahoma City where the Oklahoma City University will be met Friday afternoon in the final game of the season.

The Goldbugs are rated among Oklahoma's best this year as well as for the last several years.

They have defeated some of Oklahoma's favored sons this year and are purported to be growing in strength with each contest.

Bufs in Shape

Coach Burton reports his squad in good shape for the trip. Every regular except Big George Manning is in first class condition and raring to go. Manning is troubled with minor afflictions which are not likely to affect his customary stellar performance.

Following two tie games in succession, neither of which is to the credit of the home team, the Buffaloes should be in fighting mood and anxious to atone for the let-downs.

Final Game

The Goldbug clash marks the final game for the Bufs this season. Unless Coach Burton should match an unexpected foe, the squad will check in their uniforms from helmet to cleats upon their return from Oklahoma City.

Whatever the outcome of the remaining game, the Buffaloes will have completed one of the most successful seasons in the history of the institution. To date only one game has been lost, two tied, and four won.

Splitting a Hare

At first glance at this picture of a Mojave desert rabbit being skinned, you'll probably mutter, "There ain't no such rabbit." But this picture was taken out west, in the land of hare-raising tales and rabbits that are rabbits. This is a picture of Art Zellig, rancher, about to skin a jackrabbit he had caught near Victorville, Calif., and you can believe it or not. But it does seem strange that you can't see the rabbit's shadow, doesn't it?

REWARD FOR GOOD ACTING.

They tell it of James Gordon Bennett. He hated drinkers and the boys who worked with him were all aware of it. One of the pressmen returned from a bender with a beautiful black eye.

As luck would have it, James Gordon popped into the pressroom that day. The fellow spotted him before Bennett saw him, and rather than explain the "shiner" and run the risk of being fired chose to rub printer's ink all over his face. On his tour of inspection around the pressroom Bennett came upon the besmudged pressman busily burying his nose in his work.

"Who's that fellow?" he asked the foreman. Upon being told, Bennett asked, "What do you pay him?" The foreman quoted the figure.

"Double it!" snapped Bennett. "He's the only one in the place who seems to be doing any work."—New York Morning Telegraph.

"THE SPIRIT OF THE PIONEER" IS SUBJECT OF ADDRESS BY DR. J. A. HILL

MUSEUM DEDICATION

Three centuries and more ago our forefathers met on the Atlantic seaboard of this continent and laid the corner stone of the American Republic. In the process of the years their children have erected the superstructure of a government whose noble parts are held together by the mortar of human liberty, re-enforced with the imperishable doctrine that all men are created equal and are endowed by their Creator with certain unalienable rights. Under the beneficent influence of this political structure the American people have subdued the continent. They have conquered her forests, tunneled her mountains, exploited her natural resources, and made her deserts to bloom like the rose. They have pierced the heavens with the smoke stacks of industry, covered her ports and waterways with the fleets of commerce, belted the continent with railroads, highways, and airways, and amassed a wealth that has stupefied the nations of the world. They have enjoyed singular freedom in religion, in speech, and in person, and reasonable security in their right to life, liberty, and the pursuit of happiness. Their scientific inventions have created the greatest mechanical age in the annals of time, while their system of public free schools, capstoned with a multitude of great colleges and universities, give strength and security and polish to their material civilization, and furnish the cultural background for the moral and spiritual development of the people.

These magnificent achievements are the result of the pioneer spirit which has directed the course of the American nation through all the years. More than a half century ago it found its way to the Plains of Northwest Texas—the last frontier within the national domain. Under its irrepressible leaderships the Goodnights, the Bugbees, the Hoovers, the Hobarts, the Dixons, the Caters, the Goughs, the Smythes, the Houstons, the Turners, the Husseleys, the Cobles, the Smiths, and many others of their kind laid here in this vast southwestern empire the cornerstone of a new civilization. Upon it they and their children have erected a superstructure of social, civil, economic, and cultural qualities in keeping with the ideals and achievements of their colonial forebears. Where formerly the Redman, the buffalo, and the sand storm had held undisputed sway for centuries, these pioneers established themselves and carried the American doctrine of free institutions. Where the cactus and the yucca once held dominion over the vegetable world, these men and women have developed the greatest wheat producing area in this great state. The yellow blossom of the broom weed has been supplanted with the white bloom of King Cotton. Upon the hills and plains where the antelope and the wild horse roamed unmolested, the whiteface and the jersey flourish in enviable array. Along the barren breaks and roughlands, once the safe retreat of wolf and bear, these pioneers have pierced the surface of the earth and turned into the channels of world commerce streams of liquid gold. Their conquest of the world of matter has created the greatest per capita Empire, and their material civilization takes equal rank with that of other parts of the nation.

In culture, too, these pioneers have kept the faith. They have erected a public school system unequalled by any other part of this great state. Their devotion to letters and arts is attested by their colleges, while hundreds of beautiful churches bear witness to their appreciation of religion.

We are met today to lay the corner stone of a building that at once symbolizes their achievement and their hopes. It is the spirit of the Pioneer objectified. It speaks to us of those virtues in whose kindly exercise is to be found the history of this republic. It tells an epic of courage, of faith, of industry, of honesty, and of self-control. It likewise points the way to future greatness. These solid foundations proclaim the importance of character as the groundwork and superstructure of genuine happiness and usefulness. The whiteness of these walls shall symbolize to rising generations the purity of purpose that is essential to right living. The beauty and symmetry and strength throughout the edifice shall forever suggest where life's best values are to be found.

In the name of the students of the West Texas State Teachers College, past, present, and prospective, in the name of the Faculty and the Board of Regents, and in the name of the State of Texas, in the measure and manner in which I am able to represent it, I wish to thank these men and women whose pioneer spirit has brought us to this occasion. As nearly three score years ago you plighted all to the realization of your youthful dreams on these Plains, and by courage and industry and honesty have erected here a great civilization that embodies anew the ideals and aspirations of our common ancestry, we, to whom you this day throw the torch, pledge to you and to the departed spirits of yesteryear, unfaltering support of those kingly qualities which have brought you, in such honor, to this unparalleled occasion in the life of our beloved state.

And may the God of our fathers, who has shown us the way for more than three centuries, not turn his face from us in the years to come.

Board of Regents Discuss Semester Plan at Ft. Worth

President J. A. Hill arrived home Saturday morning from the quarterly meeting of the Board of Regents of the Texas Teachers Colleges held in Ft. Worth on November 9 and 10.

Reports from the seven Teachers Colleges of Texas were made by the respective presidents. The questions of summer school, budget for the next biennium, and the semester plan were discussed and a report prepared for the State Board of Education.

At the meeting, the presidents received the authority to proceed with preparation for school during the summer of 1933. The semester plan, the topic of considerable discussion, is to be adopted by all teachers colleges beginning next fall. It will supplant the old quarter-hour system.

THE EAGLE'S TALE

VOLUME NO. 7

CANYON, TEXAS NOVEMBER 17, 1932.

NUMBER 7

ROPE THE WHITEFACES FRIDAY!

BI-SECTIONAL CHAMPIONSHIP GAME WILL BE PLAYED FRIDAY AFTERNOON WITH WHITE FACES

Next Friday the Canyon High School Eagles will go to Hereford to battle the Whitefaces for the bi-sectional championship.

Not only will this game decide the bi-sectional championship, but it will determine the probable district championship because Canyon and Hereford are touted as the strongest contenders for district honors.

The Eagles will enter the contest the favorites as a result of their 13 to 7 victory over the Whitefaces two weeks ago on the local gridiron. But again as a result of their defeat the Whitefaces will be out to give the Eagles a battle worth anybody's money.

Coach Barksdale says that the spirit is running high on the practice field. Everyone is talking the game and the Eagle battle cry is "Beat Hereford."

The Eagle coach is putting his squad through a stiff workout this week. They're receiving a stiff workout in pass defense combined with intensive drilling in individual tackling and blocking.

The Eagle squad will be strengthened in this game with the return of Austin Cone and Johnny Wilson to the regular lineup. Austin has been out of scrimmage for two weeks with an injured knee. Johnny received an injury to his eye some three weeks ago. Austin plays the right end position and Johnny plays left half back.

Coach Barksdale gives us the probable starting lineup with their positions, weight and numbers:

Eagles Take Game From Farwell Here on Armistice Day

The Canyon High School Eagles celebrated Armistice Day with a grid victory over the Farwell Steers 27 to 7.

Coach Barksdale used the second and third teams most of the time in order to save the first team for the much talked about Hereford game next Friday at Hereford.

The Canyon second team started the game. Farwell kicked to S. Cox who took the ball on his ten yard line and returned to the 25. The second team with Sewell Cox and Ford Lain totting the ball, marched down the field and four minutes after the game started Sewell Cox slipped around right end for ten yards and the Eagles' first score. Slack kicked for extra point. The game continued on even terms the remainder of the first quarter.

The second quarter opened with Farwell starting a drive which resulted in the substitution of the Eagle first team. The Farwell lads were held for downs on the one yard line. The first play by the Eagle first team on the offense resulted in a brilliant 35 yard run by Stroud. They began a drive which resulted in another touchdown for the Eagles without losing possession of the ball. Thomas scored, and T. Cox galloped across the chalk line for the extra point as the half ended.

The Eagle shock troops started again at the half, but were unable to score, so again the regulars were substituted. The regulars were quick to get possession of the ball. After two trials with no gain, Thomas slipped off left tackle and into an open field. What followed, was probably the most beautiful run of the day. Seventy yards and it was quick! Say, that Thomas boy can run. Tyson Cox failed to add extra point from placement. Just a few minutes later, J. M. Black, Eagle center intercepted a Farwell pass on his own twenty and with first class side stepping, stiff arming and running, he returned to his 45. Another drive was started that resulted in Canyon's last score. Wade Johnson, Eagle fullback, carried the pigskin over for the tally. T. Cox kicked for extra point as the third period ended.

Again the coach substituted the second team. They were unable to check the determined Steers. Early in the fourth quarter, Coburn, the Farwell mainstay slipped across the goal line for Farwell's only score. Coburn plunged across for the extra point.

Coburn, the Farwell quarterback, along with Thomas, Eagle pilot, and Stroud, Eagle halfback were the stars of the game. C. Wooten and T. V. Slack were the two second team boys who dealt the Steers so much trouble, both on offense and defense.

Although the Steers were badly outscored, they registered 13 first downs against 15 for the locals.

Victor Hill, playing left tackle for the Eagles, was injured in the fourth quarter. He was rushed to a doctor. Victor will probably be out of training the remainder of the season because of the injury.

"B" Team Whipped By Buchanan Juniors at Amarillo Thursday

Last Thursday the Eagle "B" team visited the Buchanan Junior High School in Amarillo and engaged in a football game with the Buchanan Buffaloes. The game ended with the "B" team on the small end of a 21 to 13 score.

The game was played in the rain and snow, which made it a rough affair. Ford Lain, led the "B" team offense. His punt returns and end runs were an outstanding feature of the day. Glen Bufkin, brother of the famous Burl Bufkin, was the fellow who was a menace to the "B" team defense.

Chapel

On November 9th, the chapel program was made up of talks on the growth of education. This week having been the national week of education.

Katherine Robinson spoke on "Home and Pioneers." She told of the terrible times the pioneers had when they were just beginning to develop our country.

Marvin Callihan gave a very interesting talk about "The School and the Pioneers." He told about the first school in 1870 and about the first University.

"Two Century Progress of New World Schools" was a very interesting subject which Louise Wester spoke on. She told about there being no co-ed school or electives before the modern schools were established.

"The Growth of the Consolidated Schools and the Benefit for Man," was told by Maxine Middleton. She told about how the poor man had a chance to educate his children as well as the rich man. "The Schools and American Ideas" was a very interesting talk given by Earl Ritchie. He said that at school was the place where our character and reputation are formed. He emphasized that it would take good health to make a success in school. He brought out the fact that our success as a citizen and future home life would depend on our education.

The high school glee club sang the following numbers, "Indian Lullaby," "A Bit of Philosophy." The talks and the music rendered by the Glee Club was greatly appreciated by the student body.

OUR LIVES

What are we living for? What are we going to do and be that will make our lives worth living? Are we going to "do something and be somebody" or will we be weaklings, shiftless and expecting everything for nothing?

Everyone has an equal chance to amount to something. Success is something that you can't buy and something that other people can't obtain for you. Our lives now determine the course of our lives forty or fifty years from now.

People judge us from our appearance, our words, and our actions. The way we control and conduct ourselves now determine the opinion people will have of us and the reputation that will follow us all through our lives.

Let's be somebody! Be worth while!

An Oil that reaches vital parts of your Motor as quickly as possible

OR An Oil that is already on all the parts before your motor starts!

DID YOU KNOW THIS... that half of all your motor wear occurs while you're starting your car and letting it warm up! Here's why: Your motor makes 3,000 to 5,000 revolutions before oil circulates from the crankcase to all parts of the motor. Your motor runs with vital parts receiving no oil from your crankcase reservoir! ... What protection do other oils offer you against this half of your motor-wear? The best of these oils "reach all parts in the shortest time," say their makers.

What protection does Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil offer? It is already in and on every part and lubricates safely from the second you step on your starter! A "Hidden Quart" of Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil stays up in your motor and never drains away! Other oils drain away during idle periods, leaving parts "dry." Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil actually penetrates and combines with metal surfaces and never leaves any part unlubricated. It cuts starting-wear to the minimum and gives your car longer life!

Like other good oils, Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil is thoroughly de-waxed and circulates freely at subzero temperatures.

Avoid the terrific wear of winter's long warming-up periods. Change today to Conoco Germ Processed Motor Oil. ...

News in Canyon 25 Years Ago

(From the files of the Canyon City News, November 15, 1907)

Ernest Upfold returned this week from a six weeks round among the natives in Nebraska.

The Methodist Ladies cleared nearly a hundred dollars Tuesday off their dinner and supper.

Miss Edna O'Bryan, the school teacher at Umbarger, brought the News a new subscriber Saturday, W. G. Rose.

At the meeting of the Commercial club Tuesday evening, it was unanimously carried that Judge Henson organize, if possible, a company to explore that part of the Canyon sought to be converted into a National Park, getting data, pictures, etc., and that the same be accomplished as speedily as possible. It was stated that a party of three or four including a picture man and a newspaper writer equipped with a pack animal would be about the right thing for this. C. T. DeGraften volunteered to go along as "path-finder."

The Palo Duro exploring party as formed to date consists of Judge Henson, R. A. Terrill, A. S. Rollins, Sam Lofton, and C. T. DeGraften. It is the intention to start Monday. M. S. Lusby is badly wanted and may go.

Editor Boeson of the Daily Panhandle was an office caller on convention day and also Mrs. R. W. Morgan of Amarillo. The News is always glad to receive fraternal visits and especially so from those who, like its editor, have made the good resolution to live and die in the Texas Panhandle.

IN THE WORLD OF SPORTS

With Senile Ruth and Sewell, Erratic Lazzeri and Temperamental Gomez, Manager Joe McCarthy of the Yanks Has Plenty of Worries

BY PHILIP MARTIN

THERE are several huge question marks barring Joe McCarthy's path to another Yankee world's championship. Those question marks include two old men—as ball players go—and two "up and downers."

It is a known fact that the Yanks are built around the slugging of Babe Ruth and Lou Gehrig. Lou is pretty certain to continue his circuit clouting next year, but the Babe presents a big question.

The old boy's legs are getting quite a bit jittery—so much so, in fact, that it has been rumored around quite a lot that he's scheduled to leave the Yankee hearthside and take up a job as manager of the lowly Boston Red Sox.

Babe's injuries and health have had him out of the lineup several times in past seasons. It's extremely doubtful if he'll stand the 154-game pace next year.

Joe Sewell is the other "old man" on the squad. Joe's best baseball years were given to the Cleveland Indians. Last year he found a hidden spark of energy buried inside his tiny frame, revived it, and had one of his best seasons. But you can bank on it that Joey won't be so hot next year.

THE two erratic young men McCarthy has to put up with are Tony Lazzeri and Lefty Gomez. Tony, hailed as a great star in 1930, slumped miserably in 1931, and came back last year to shine again in the Yankee infield. "Poosh 'em Up" is a great ball player when he's good. But he can boot 'em around the infield with the worst of them when he's bad.

Probably the success of the Yankees had something to do with Tony's brilliant play last season. But if it did, and the Yankees start off on the wrong foot in the beginning of the 1933 season, Tony is apt to slump with the team and never recover.

Gomez is the prima donna type of ball player. Slim and sensitive, the Castilian twirler is as temperamental as any great soprano ever was.

Last year he started off like a house afire. Then came a slump, and he staggered around the

Will the two oldsters, Little Joey Sewell, above, and Babe Ruth, be able to keep up the pace for another season? What will erratic "Poosh 'em Up" Tony Lazzeri do next year? And can the Yankee prima donna, Lefty Gomez, be counted on to deliver consistently in the 1933 season? These are some of the questions that make Joe McCarthy, the Yanks' manager, wake up in a cold sweat.

He took the Yanks last year, after they had faltered in their championship stride of a few years back, and brought them to a pennant.

After such a deed, the 1933 aggression he hopes to repeat with shouldn't be such a big problem to him.

BURTONMEN PLAY SECOND TIE GAME IN TWO WEEKS AGAINST NEW MEXICO CADETS FRIDAY

SCORE 7 TO 7 HECTIC FRAY UNTIL LAST

"COW" BREAKS THRU

Against an inspired battalion of New Mexico Military Institute Broncos, the Thundering Herd last Thursday pounded out a seven to seven draw on the home field of the Institute at Roswell.

The affray for the most part was a contest in passing and punting ability, very decidedly bearing out the old tradition that it never pays to bet on a Buff-Bronco tilt.

During the first three quarters of the game the Cadets, with a rapid fire attack of deceptive spinner plays, clearly held the advantage over the West Texas Teachers. Early in the second period the Cadets scored on a long pass, Dinelli to Perez. A place kick by Huffaker won the extra point.

Exchange of Punts.
For the next two periods the game proved to be an exchange of punts and a series of unsuccessful pass attacks with neither team threatening the scoring line. It was mid-way in the last quarter that a pass from Burk to Fortenberry placed the Buffaloes for the first time within scoring distance.

An off-side penalty drew the Buffaloes five yards farther within the Cadet territory. In the next two minutes six consecutive center line plunges of the powerful "Cow" Williams broke the morale of the heretofore effective Cadets and placed the pigskin well inside the striped zone. The extra point was made easily by the accurate toe of Teague. The score remained unchanged until the last gun.

Ponies Show Style
The Buffaloes met a much keener type of competition on the Institute gridiron than they had anticipated, and were somewhat bewildered by the flashy Bronco crew during the first half of the game. Not until the last quarter did the Herd make any demonstration of the qualities which have brought them so many successes this season. Not once during the game did they hit the stride they maintained through the Sul Ross game.

Captain Bill McClendon, however, apparently suffered no let down in his abilities at intercepting passes and performing the kickoff.

Substitute Stars
Another Buff, whose technique had a telling effect on the Bronco attack was Kenneth Kendrick who came in at the end position in the second quarter, replacing Stowe. His crashing tackles and the deft handling of passes that came his way contributed mightily to the partial recuperation of the Buffs in the last period of the game.

More Deer Are Placed in The Palo Duro Park

Twenty-one more deer were freed Monday in the Palo Duro Canyon by J. J. Dent of the State Game, Fish and Oyster Commission. This is the third truck load of deer which have been brought to the Palo Duro during the past 18 months. It is stated that the Palo Duro is a natural home for deer, and that the herd should thrive and multiply very rapidly if protected by the citizens of the Plains.

Eckhardt Placed on All-Time Team of the Southwest

Oscar Eckhardt, former W. T. football coach, was recently given a berth on the mythical All-Time All-Southwest football team, a selection made by Jinx Tucker of the Waco News-Tribune, known as the dean of Texas sports writers. The choice of eleven men for the All-Time team was made from the hundreds of men who have played in the Southwest Conference since 1915.

Eckhardt receives his position on the All-Time team by virtue of his performance as right half back at the University of Texas in 1923. Eckhardt came from Texas University to Canyon as football coach. He left W. T. in 1927 to enter professional baseball.

Knitted Suits Are Comfortable, Smart

A COAT OR AN ENSEMBLE, IN WINE COLOR OR OXFORD GRAY, WILL SEE MILADY THROUGH THE WINTER IN CHIC

BY HARRIET

NOTHING you can wear is more comfortable than the right knitted costume.

Such an outfit has the informality that gives comfort and the chic that gives confidence in your appearance. It's a grand combination. Knitted things this year go in for individuality. They accommodate themselves to the needs of women who go in for sports, girls who must have wearables for school and working folks who know that their jobs depend a lot on the way they look.

You can get knitted things this year that are so lacy in their weaves that they are vastly flattering and feminine. And you can get knitted costumes that have highlights of the latest styles. Broad-shouldered effects, sleeves that are interesting, waistlines that are belted in the mode and all manner of fascinating new necklines.

There are two types of knitted costume that will see you through the winter in chic. One is the suit, sometimes a four-piece outfit, the other is the new knitted coat, all interlined to make it warm and cut smartly as any tweed. But of course the knitted weave of it makes it far softer and easier to wear than tweed.

Colors run rampant and there are the newest Mulberry tones, all the wines combined with a new French blue and raspberry that makes a color combination that melts in your mouth. Gray, I might say in passing, is the last word in winter colors, the deep Oxford gray enlivened by a blouse or scarf of novelty stripes which flaunt red, white and gray, various combinations of blues with gray and greens, rose tones or almost any colors your heart desires.

ONE of the latest knitted suits is a six-piece ensemble in that aristocrat of colors, Oxford gray. There is a skirt with a tricky double-breasted jacket with cape back, a blouse of zephyr stripes, a detachable cape scarf of this striped weave that falls over the coat's cape collar, and bag and hat of the gray. It is exquisitely fine, made of silk knit alpaca, in a novelty weave. The blouse is a little beauty, made with a semi-high round neckline over which the unusual cape scarf fastens with small intertwined bands of the Oxford gray.

The four-piece ensemble shown at left includes a double-breasted jacket of silk knit alpaca, and a skirt of the same material. A blouse and a detachable scarf of striped zephyr yarn, add a lively touch. Turban and bag are of the suit's material. The wool knit alpaca coat at right is interlined, with new scarf treatment and an interesting sleeve. The hat and bag likewise are of wool knit alpaca.

The purse is a flat one, finished in a lighter gray kidskin. The little hat is one of those that fits the head like a cap, in smart fashion and is extremely packable, if you're going on a trip.

Brand new this winter is the knitted coat, like this Burgundy red one. It, too, is wool knit alpaca, different enough from the unusual run of things to please the most fastidious girl. It has a warm interlining, so makes an excellent winter coat. The sleeves come in for their share of notice because they fit into the body of the coat

"Central" sends help to a Frantic Mother

Jimmy Ratliff, 12 years old, went fishing with his chum. They took the little .410-gauge shotgun saying... "Gonna kill us a rabbit for bait."

There was a report from the gun at the pond, a quarter of a mile from the house. Jimmy was shot... hurt badly. A frantic mother ran to the telephone...

"Central! A doctor quick!"

Lucy Adams, at the switchboard, called the doctor's office. He wasn't in. She rang the telephone at his home, and he wasn't there. She tried the cafe, and located him. Within five minutes the doctor was speeding toward the Ratliff home.

The little boy was weak when the doctor arrived. He dressed the wound... sent Jimmy to the hospital. The boy is out playing again now.

Twenty-four hours of each day the telephone is ready for your calls. Whether it be for the doctor, to get the price for eggs or cream, to order a part for a machine, or to visit a neighbor... the telephone pays its way.

You can buy few things which cost so little and are worth so much.
